

NARI NATIONAL AGEING
RESEARCH
INSTITUTE LTD

Bringing research to life

Mapping the Journey in Residential Aged Care for Residents with Dementia

Royal Freemasons has partnered with NARI to investigate new approaches to deliver consumer directed residential aged care.

Residents and families are ill-prepared when a resident with dementia declines in health and 'transitions' to a substantially different level of care.

NARI will evaluate the enhanced care program for residential services which includes Transition Maps, an information-rich yet simple tool to map, track and coordinate a resident's journey in care.

Further information: Dr Steve Savvas: s.savvas@nari.edu.au